ORDER GRANTING SENTENCE FOUR REMAND

The Commissioner of Social Security has moved the Court to reverse the decision of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) and remand this action to the Commissioner pursuant to sentence four of section 205(g), 42 U.S.C. § 405(g). (ECF No. 10.) The Commissioner, after reviewing Plaintiff's briefing in this appeal, requests remand to allow the ALJ to properly consider Plaintiff's fibromyalgia pursuant to the agency policy from Social Security Ruling 12-2p.

Remand will expedite administrative review, ensure that the Commissioner has the opportunity to fully consider Plaintiff's claim, and may ultimately make judicial review unnecessary. Remand by this Court is appropriate under 42 U.S.C. § 405(g), which provides:

The court shall have power to enter, upon the pleadings and transcript of the record, a judgment affirming, modifying, or reversing the decision of the Commissioner of Social Security, with or without remanding the cause for a rehearing.

See also Melkonyan v. Sullivan, 501 U.S. 89 (1991); Newkirk v. Shalala, 25 F.3d 316, 318 (6th Cir. 1994).

For the foregoing reasons, and pursuant to the Supreme Court's decision in Shalala v. Schaefer, 509 U.S. 292 (1993), the Clerk of the Court is DIRECTED to enter judgment in this matter pursuant to Rule 58 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure reversing the decision of the ALJ and remanding this case to the Commissioner under sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g).

IT IS SO ORDERED.
